Bandung is the capital city of West Java and the third largest city in Indonesia after Jakarta and Surabaya

Nicknamed Parijs van Java (Paris of Java) by the Dutch for its resemblance to Paris and European atmosphere back to the colonial times, Bandung also earned another nickname as Kota Kembang, literally meaning the Flower City since Bandung used to have a lot of flowers. Located at the altitude of 768m with the surroundings of lush and beautiful Parahyangan mountains make the climate mild and pleasant. The city has been well known for the universities, apparel products and a great place for gastronomic adventure. Nowadays, Bandung has become a very popular weekend escape and the paradise for the shopper. It home to hundreds of factory outlets and fashion shops.

Located in the heart of Bandung, Atmosphere Resort Café offers a wide range of finest European, Indonesian and Asian cuisines, in a comfortable and stylish atmosphere. The interior design is adapted from Balinese and extends with cozy ambience of polished woods, Gazebos and various watercress around the ponds, which give beautiful view and natural nuances.
